

APPENDIX: A CHRONOLOGY OF COMPOSITION

The following chronology is an adaptation of the "Chronological Survey and Guide" in Lawrence Sutin's Divine Invasions (290-312). A very similar chronology appears in Paul Williams' Only Apparently Real (178-184); Williams differs from Sutin in placing Gather Yourselves Together after The Cosmic Puppets and Mary and the Giant after Eye in the Sky. I prefer Sutin's chronology because of his more extensive utilization of textual and autobiographical clues, but those engaged in a study of Dick's early novels should be aware of the discrepancy. Estimated year(s) of writing (w.), rewriting (rew.), and publication (p.) are indicated for each novel.

Gather Yourselves Together (w. 1949-50; p. 1994)

The Cosmic Puppets, originally titled A Glass of Darkness (w. 1953; p. 1956 in Satellite; p. 1957 in expanded form)
